Kind parents and my every friend
 Behold my grave, think of my end,
 By fire and smoke, I lost my breathe.
 Seek God & thus prepare for death,
 Not youth, nor virtue, friend, nor foe,
 Could screen me from the dismal flame.

 (Mrs. Ford was very solicitous in the care of the little grave yard where Caroline, her daughter was buried. Caroline's marker contained her picture. Mrs. Ford planted double daffodils and many other flowers there. The cemetery is now owned by the MDC. The MDC has taken down the iron fence and put it up in front of the caretaker's home. All the bodies were removed from the cemetery by relatives before the MDC purchased the land.

Inscription on the headstone of Dea. Simeon and his wife Sarah Hart.

"Here lieth the bodies of Deacon Simeon Hart,
And Sarah, his wife;
She d.January 11th, 1800,
Aged 62, and he died
January 12th, 1800, aged 64.
They were eminent for Piety,
Charity, and Christian Morality".

"Inexorable death, thou sweep'st away
The kind, Compassionate, and just,
All flesh by thee is turned to clay,
And molders into common dust.
Here ends thy reign, the soul shall rise,
(If Grace the heart hath well refined,)
Shall join the chorus of the skies,
In Hallelujahs to the Eternal Mind."

To, L.Alderman

Thank you for your response and your request for further information regarding the deceased members of the Kucia family. My brothers and sisters all lived in Burlington and were educated in the Burlington school grammar school and then on to Canton High school as Burlington, at that time, did not have a high school. Most of them remained in Burlington until their late twenties or early thirties until marriage except John and myself, we both lived in Hartford for one or two years and then back to live in Burlington. The section of town that we lived in was often referred to as Collinsville as we were serviced by the Collinsville post office, hence our mailing address was Collinsville, not Burlington. As you can see in an enclosed article about Jennie Byrck, my old grammar school teacher, it mentions that she was a pupil at Riverside school, Collinsville, town of Burlington. Riverside school was also referred to as Sand Bank School. I am also enclosing a picture of pupils of Riverside school in 1922 which has two of my brothers included. This picture probably was published by you.

Some of the information given to you by Henry Sydlo is incorrect and I make some comments on it. He told me that he had also given you a newspaper article of the Kucia brothers in the army with only one in the navy. It said something to the effect of six to one of the Collinsville brothers in the service. Again it should have read Burlington brothers. None of us ever lived in Collinsville except for a year or two for Joseph when he got married. Incidentally. Henry Sydlo was a relation of mine. His father and my father came from the same town in Poland and were cousins, I think second cousins. I am enclosing a picture of two of the Sydlo brothers from world war two.

I am glad that you have included Burlington residents that are buried elsewhere and not only in Burlington such as the prominent and colorful members of the Scheidel and Schwarzmamm family, many buried at Calvary Cemetery in Collinsville. In my section of town many of us attended St. Patrick's church which has it's cemetery in Collinsville.

Alex Kucia, 29 Alto Road.

Alex Kucia, 29 Alto Road, Burlington, CT 06013 tele; 673-9729 10-9-04

Dear Alex; Thank you for all that information on the Kucia family. Your family was/is a valuable part of Burlington History.

When I first started compiling Burlington obituaries, I only copied those who were buried in Burlington. As time went on I realized many people lived in Burlington all there lives but were buried elsewhere so I decided to include some of them also.

I note that some Kucia's did not live in town, nor were they buried here. Now What? As your family was strongly related to Burlington, perhaps I will include all that you sent in one of my history books.

You are right that there are more Kucia's listed on the Center Green Monuments than any other family. In regard to the Gezelman family, I believe some served in two wars. I have enclosed the below for your review and corrections. In my obit book I tried to include, full date of birth and death, also maiden name, parents or spouse for genealogical reasons. I have some material on the Kucia's already that originated from you. (see below)

John Kucia took movies of many of the dinners at the Burlington Inn for departing servicemen. I bought these films, but then I loaned them to James Sheehan, now deceased. His widow lives in New Hartford and recently sold the Claire Hill property. I have not tried to contact her.

Dear Leonard; (Some of Henry Sydlo's remarks the below are incorrect)

Here is the Kucia story, after checking with one of the living brothers who lives on Blueberry Rd., Burlington, CT. 673-9729. That is Alex.

Frank Kucia Sr. came to this country about 1906 and married his first wife, Katarzyna, who died in 1923 after giving birth to Joseph. Joseph was brought up by John Kochan. Frank later married Kathryn. Frank Sr., lived on Arch St. until it burned, then on Rock St., Burlington.

John Kucia took movies of many of the dinners at the Burlington Inn for departing servicemen. I bought these films, but then I loaned them to James Sheehan, now deceased. His widow lives in New Hartford and recently sold the Claire Hill property. I have not tried to contact her.

Regarding Ford Road: Ford Road is one thing but the connecting road is my back road. It went from Ford Road, then curved to go west of Winalski's and Bergeron's to route 179. At one time it did not go through via my driveway.

Everything around here at one time was Barnes. At one time the mountain was owned by Isaac Barnes, who disappeared in South Carolina. I bought the mountain from his daughter, Millicent and sold it to my sons.

In 1914 when the pipeline was built from the reservoir, under Ford Road and crossed the river near Mary McAllen's, there was a road diversion up my Son's driveway as a by-pass for one year.

There was supposed to be a filter house to take care of 9 houses in this area but it never was accomplished.

Winalski's and I have water rights to catch any water from the reservoir down, for domestic purposes. I presently pipe water from west of Ford Road to my house. (Lot) I also had rights to 5 water rights to wells and springs.

Along this passageway, which goes through to route 179, was a silvermine, still discernable, George Wilkinson's shop at my house level and a cutlery shop across from my garage? Wm. Schwarzman's brother lived across the brook from my garage. So much for my Alzheimer brain. Needn't pursue Zima further.

FROM--A BOOK OF RECORDS FOR THE SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST SOCIETY

At a meeting of the Seventh Day Baptist Society and others holden at the house of Jared Covey on the 12th day of Oct. 1796, made choice of Dea. Amos Burdict Moderator and Silas Covey, Clerk. Voted that the meeting be adjourned to the 9 day of November at 6 O'clock P.M. at the same time.

Having met agreeable to adjournment the Moderator being absent made choice of Elisha Covey to lead in sd meeting and whereas Jared Covey presented to the meeting a deed of a piece or parcel of land laying at the southeast corner of the ninth lot in the fourth division in Bristol containing about half an acre for the purpose of a public burying ground with this consideration of sd Society, fencing sd land and giving the privilege of pasturing sheep on the same upon which consideration sd meeting as a Society accepted the present whereas it is necessary to have a committee to superintend the fencing sd land. Voted that Elias Willcox be a committee to superintend sd business. Voted that Elisha Covey take charge of sd deed and the records of sd meeting. Voted to adjourn to the fourth Monday in Oct. next at 6 O'clock P.M. at the house of Jared Covey.

LAMSON CORNER CEMETERY CHAUNCEY BROOKS Vol. 1, p.352 2-10-1812

Chauncey Brooks of Burlington for 11 dollars, received of Gad Frisbie, treasurer of sd town and sundry of the inhabitants thereof Give, Grant, Bargain, Sell and Confirm to Gad Frisbie and the rest of the inhabitants of sd Burlington a certain piece of land situate in sd Burlington nearly east of my dwelling house and now within fence for the purpose and now occupied for a public Burying Ground, is bounded south and west on the highway, east and north on my own land and contains about ninety rods of land, more or less.

CHURCH RECORD: VOL. 1, PAGE 6

At a meeting of the Society of West Britain legally warned & holden at the Dwelling House of Mr. John Wyards on Monday ye 24 Day of December AD 1776.

"Made choice of Mr. Amos Doud, Lieut. Thomas Brooks, Mr. Joseph Lankton, Mr. Jeremiah Griswold, Mr. Simeon Hart, Mr. Samuel Culver & Mr. Daniel Bunnell be School Committee for their several Districts.

Also made choice of Joshua Phelps & Jeremiah Griswold in addition to Simeon Hart to look for a place or places for burying places.

At the same meeting voted that Joshua Phelps and Ebenezer Hamblin provide two black cloaths for the use of burying the dead.

Apparently Case Road Cemetery and Milford Street Cemetery could be the burying places selected by the above committee. They are the two oldest cemeteries in town, excepting the Baptist Cemetery. (Upson Road) and many members of the early church are buried in both cemeteries. In Case Cemetery, on the side nearest Case Road, there are many graves marked by common field stone.(A.R.A.)

"The first death occurred in 1743. The man d.of small-pox and was buried on Pine Hill, and wary has been the tread of many a school child as he gathered May flowers, or picked berries near the spot." (Historical Sketch of Whigville, Don Peck 1875)

(From Town Meeting Record)

p.16)4-2-1877; The following proposition was read and excepted, viz;

"I, Adaline Bunnell will give a deed to the town for the purpose of enlarging the cemetery, on the west side , 70 feet wide and length of cemetery. Conditions: I am to have control and the proceeds of the south end as far north as the yard is now fenced, giving the north half to the town, provided the town will move the fence on west side of land given by Adaline Bunnell, commencing at the south west corner of land given."

(70 feet from the north line of the cemetery measures to the first road.L.R.A.)

In 1992 17 percent of all deaths in Connecticut were handled by cremation.

105-1 Center Cemetery (-G-) Catholic Section.

October 29, 1900. St. Patrick's Church Corporation bought the following real estate from Adaline A.Bunnell of Burlington for $20.00. North of and adjoining the Town Cemetery at Burlington Center, said piece of land is twelve rods (198 feet) in length from north to south and about eight rods (128 feet) wide from east to west containing about 96 rods (6/10th acre) of land & is bounded north, east, and west on land of the grantor and on the south by the Town Cemetery. (Vol. 22 P. 157, Burlington Land Records)

As of 1989.

105-2 Milford Street. Total recorded buried 221. Oldest,

Thankful Hotchkiss, Sept. 14, 1760. Last John Fenn, May 2, 1897.

105-3 Lamson Corner. Total recorded buried 360. Oldest,

Ruth Graves, 8-20-1783. Still used occasionally.

105-4 Case Total recorded buried 152. Oldest,

Phebe Griswold, July 21, 1798. Still used occasionally.

105-5 Upson Road. Total recorded buried 35. Oldest, John Davis, 1780.

Last Charlotte Spencer, Oct. 14, 1881.

Two other cemeteries, Southwest, N-102 (0.8A.)and St. John's, N-104, (7.2A) were moved (372 bodies) because of the flooding of the Nepaug Reservoir. One belonged to St. Patrick's Church of Burlington and the other was Congregational of Canton.

According to expert Stephen Petke there are three stones in Burlington Cemeteries cut by the famous Calvin Barber (1772-1841) of Simsbury. Two at Milford Street Cemetery, Joshua Phelps and Rhoda, Pereintha and wife Sarah (one stone) and Alice Fuller at Case Cemetery.

"Do not stand at my grave and weep,

"I am not there, I do not sleep.

"I am a thousand winds that blow;

"I am the diamond glints on snow.

"I am the sunlight on ripened grain;

"I am the gentle autumn's rain.

"When you awaken in the morning's hush,

"I am the swift uplifting rush

"I am the soft star that shines at night.

"Do not stand at my grave and cry.

"I am not there; I did not die. (Author Unknown)

From a tombstone at Bunker Hill Cemetery in Pomfret, VT:

The Clock of Time is wound but once
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.

To lose one's wealth is sad indeed:
To lose one's health is more:

To lose one's soul is such a loss
That no man can restore.

Now, is the only time we own
Love, live, toil with a will,
Do not wait until tomorrow,
For the clock may then be still.

AROUND THE CORNER

By Henson Towne

Around the corner I have a friend,
In this great city that has no end.
Yet days go by and weeks rush on,
And before I know it, a year is gone.
And I never see my old friend's face;
For life is a swift and terrible race.
He knows I like him just as well
As in the days when I rang his bell.
And he rang mine. We were younger then -
And now we are busy, tired men -
Tired with playing a foolish game,
Tired with trying to make a name.
"Tomorrow," I say, "I will call on Jim,
Just to show that I'm thinking of him."
But tomorrow comes -- and tomorrow goes;
And the distance between us grows and grows.
Around the corner! Yet miles away...
"Here's a telegram, sir."
"Jim died today."
And that's what we get - and deserve in the end -
Around the corner, a vanished friend.

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Lois Humphrey said that the first vaults were used in Burlington Cemeteries in 1946. It is not a state law now, but up to the Cemetery Association.

FLAG ETIQUETTE by American Legion; Stock Number 72600, revised 3-1985.

13. Q. When should small flags displayed on graves on Memorial Day to be removed?

A. All Legion Posts should follow the practice established by regulations in national cemeteries by removing Flags from veteran's graves as soon as possible after Memorial Day (Resolution No. 322, 1955 National Convention).

RESPECT for the DEAD: The Baltimore Sun reported in October that several residents of the Venice on the Bay community on the Patapsco River in Anne Arundel County, MD have recently complained to authorities that people sprinkling created ashes are spoiling their waterfront. Some sprinkle them in the water while swimmers are present, sometimes the wind blows the ashes back onto residents property; and one recent sprinkler unloaded a large plastic garbage bag full on a small beach area.

THE HALE COLLECTION

Charles R.Hale started recording the burial locations of Civil War veterans for the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War in 1916. He continued this work until 1934 when he headed a Works Progress Administration (WPA) project to record the inscriptions in all of Connecticut's Cemeteries. With a staff of eighty, the job was completed and published in 1937.

The many volumes of the Hale Collection are shelved at the Connecticut State Library, which co-sponsored the project. The volumes Andover through Sterling have been copied and rebound and can be photocopied. Unfortunately, Stonington through Woodstock have not yet been copied (1999) and are too fragile to copy. To print the data for the latter towns it is necessary to use the microfilm which were made by the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) and are available through their Family History Centers and numerous libraries.

The Hale project found the location of 2,269 cemeteries, some of which have been moved, buried or lost. The locations of all the cemeteries are described in very general terms and the approximate locations shown on a 1930's topographic map. Our goal is to update these descriptions to include current street names and the latitude and longitude of the site.

THOUGHTS ON CEMETERIES

No archaeological evidence has been found indicating that, prior to contact with Europeans, Native Americans in this region erected permanent grave markers for their dead or had designated areas for laying them to rest.

Archaeologists have found evidence of cremated human remains in Connecticut as far back as 5000 years ago, and uncremated remains up to 800 years ago. In graves funerary objects were buried along with the deceased. The significance of these items is uncertain, possibly having personal or sacred value to the individual who died.

Ancient human remains and funerary objects are considered sacred to the contemporary Native Americans. The native American Grave Protection and Repatriation Act was passed by Congress in 1990, in an effort to make sure that human remains and funerary objects are returned to the rightful tribe for proper reburial.

It was not until the arrival of Europeans in the New World that we start to see more organized burial sites and grave markers among the Native populations. This may have been a result of the influence of Christian ideals on the Native culture as well as the fact that formerly transient peoples were relegated to life on reservations. The grave markers at these sites are often very simple, rough, unmarked stones, which may indicate their socio-economic status. The unmarked stone in our poster is thought to belong to a member of the Warren Tatson family, who are believed to be of either Niantic or Mohegan descent.

The gravestones of the first European settlers were very stark, reflecting their Puritan ideals. They had come to, what was for them, a harsh wilderness where disease and accidents were everyday facts of life. Death was considered the inevitable punishment for their human failings. Their headstones were often carved with death masks and epitaphs designed as constant reminders of the living to repent and prepare for the end.

As the wilderness was tamed and life in the New World became easier, headstones too became less threatening, more ornate and in a way, more comforting. By the end of the 18th century people began to move away from the harsh Puritan ideal of predestination and of an afterlife condemned to hell, toward a gentler, more Unitarian theology, where salvation was possible. Carved angels, cherubs and willows begin to appear on gravestones. In epitaphs the dead no longer provide ominous warnings to the living, but offer them comfort and the promise of ascension to heaven.

Venture Smith's headstone hints at this transition. Smith was taken from Africa as a child and brought to Connecticut, where he was sold into slavery. Known for his successful stance against the tyranny of his owners, Smith learned to use the language, laws and way of life of white people to improve life for Africans. Smith died in 1805 at the age 77 and was honored with a large funeral at the East Haddam First Congressional Church. Tombstone carver John Isham endowed the winged angel on his stone with the broad nose of an African—a symbol of the high level of acceptance Smith had gained in the community.

With the advent of the Industrial revolution, religious connotations become less evident on grave markers. They become less statements about eternal fate and more monuments to who people were as individuals while living. The tomb of Griffin Stedmen is a fine example. Struck by a stray bullet during a civil war battle, he died two days later, just after receiving news that he had been promoted to the rank of general. His ornate granite monument, carved with a draped American flag, sword, hat and the locations of all his battles, is a proclamation to the future about how he should be remembered.

Today, with the development of high-tech medicine and the funeral industry, we have less intimate contact with death. Having willingly handed the responsibility over to professionals, we seem to be pushing death away. Modern stones are smaller, there are fewer words on them and their designs are very plain. A drive through a modern cemetery, often finds little to distinguish one headstone from another.

As we enter the 21st century, many people are beginning to think we have gone too far. With the development of documents such as living wills, people seem to be striving to take back some control over the circumstances of their death. Monument builders are beginning to observe a resurgence in the desire for more expression in grave markers.

Throughout history our perception of death has always been changing. In an odd turn, what gravestones also reveal is how our perception of what it means to be alive has also changed. In the end, the only true constant seems to be the indisputable face of death itself.
